PICKED CHILDREN FOR VICTIMS

Chewing Gum Was Sprinkled with Strychnine.

Order Arrest of two Men and a Woman, Making Serious Charge.

Fulton, Mo., Aug. 8.—What county authorities believe to be a plot for the wholesale poisoning of children has been unearthed at Concord in Calloway county, and as a result, two men and a woman were arrested there today by order of the prosecuting attorney and brought to Fulton to be arraigned. The persons arrested are Lee Boyd, a farmer; his wife, Mrs. Anna Boyd, and Jefferson Woods, a horse dealer.

The children whose lives were endangered belong to families whose members testified in a slander suit recently brought by Mrs. Boyd against Dr. W. B. Ellis, a physician of Concord. Mrs. Boyd asked $15,000 damages, alleging that Dr. Ellis had defamed her character. The jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

The first alleged attempt on the lives of the children was made several weeks ago when a package of chewing gum was found in the yard of Edward McPheters, a nephew of Judge Robert McPheters, of Fulton.

FIND SECOND PACKAGE.
Less than a week ago another package of gum was placed near the gate of the McPheters home. A three-year-old child of the family was in the act of placing a piece of gum in its mouth when an older member of the family interfered.

The gum was sent to a chemist, who discovered that it was profusely sprinkled with strychnine. Twice since then packages of gum have been placed near the McPheters home and each of them was found to contain strychnine.

After the second package of gum was found the McPheters' home was watched.

OTHERS ARE INCLUDED.

The placing of the gum on the premises of people in the vicinity of Concord has become frequent the last few days and at least three more families appear to have been included in the poisoning plot. All the gum which has been found has been preserved and will be examined by a chemist.

All the families on whose premises the poisoned gum has been placed have small children.

Tonight bond was fixed at $1,000 for Mrs. Boyd and $2,000 each for Boyd and Woods. All gave bail. No preliminary hearing will be held and the case will be docketed for the September term of court.

Notice.

The undersigned assignee of the Fordville Banking Company will be in Fordville, Ohio county, Kentucky, at the office of the Fordville Banking Company, on Saturday, August 19, 1911, at which time and place all assignees will sit to receive claims against said estate, and any creditor failing to present at the time named, his claims, verified in the manner claims are required to be verified, against the estate of decedents, except that they need not be verified by a person other than the claimant, shall be deemed to have waived his right to any part of the assigned estate. See Russell's Statutes, Sec. 402.

Negroes Fined $240.00.

The trial of Gus Ford, Bill Taylor, Basil Lawrence and Ed Tichenor all of color, in Judge Wedding's court Tuesday on the charge of selling spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, Tuesday, resulted in their being fined $240.00 and cost. On motion of County Attorney Smith the working clause was made a part of the judgment and unless the fines and cost are paid the defendants will be required to work out same on the public roads at the rate of $1.00 per day.

This is the first of the cases recently instituted for selling liquor that have been tried. The result would indicate that no effort will be spared by the officials to put an end to the illicit sale of liquors and with proper co-operation of the people there is no doubt but that all illicit traffic in intoxicating liquors in Ohio county will soon be a thing of the past.

Tomato Weighed 2 3/4 Pounds.

The Catlettsburg Tribune says: James Clark will likely hold the honors of having produced the finest tomatoes of the season. The other day he plucked one from his garden that weighed two and three-fourths pounds. The splendid specimen was divided between three families and it is said made ample for them each a meal. Of course we are not advised as to the size of the respective households but the size of the fruit is correctly given in words and figures above. While this one was the largest ripe one on the vines there will likely be many others as large as it was and possibly it may be surpassed in size by others before the season is over.

SMALLHOUS

Misses Oma Maddox and Ethel Hunter, were guests of Mrs. John Wood, Cervino, Friday night and Saturday.

Those who dined with Miss Ethel Hunter, Sunday, were Mr. Elmer Mitchell and wife, of Beverly; Mr. J. E. Baker, of Central City and Mr. Jesse Kirtley and Miss Oma Maddox.

Several from this place attended the W. O. W. picnic at Livermore, Saturday.

Mr. V. P. Morton and wife, were guests of Mr. V. B. Morton and family, of Livermore, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Ross Morton, Central City, Mr. Willie Whitmer, South Carrollton, Mr. T. R. Barnard, Hartford, spent Thursday night with Mr. Sam Morton.

Miss Pearl Edwards, Bada, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ben Ross (those who attended the O. E. S. at Cervino, Saturday afternoon were Mesdames Bob Fulkerson, Lewis Fulkerson, Chester Ross, Oma Maddox and Ethel Hunter).

Dr. M. D. Maddox, is at his home here for a few days. He intends going to Louisville soon.

Dr. Crowe, of Centertown, Ky., made three trips in one day to see Mrs. Tom Miller, who is quite ill.

Mrs. Alonzo Franco is improving.

JUDGE J. L. BRISTOW.

(Communicated.)

It will be a matter of very great interest to the people of Kentucky, in connection with the nomination of Judge J. L. Bristow for Lieutenant Governor, on the Republican ticket, to know that in addition to his personal worth he is a son-in-law of Professor J. J. Rucker, LL. D., the Apostle of Temperance, who, for more than half a century, in the classroom at Georgetown college, in the press, on the platform and in the pulpit preached against the abuses of the liquor traffic. No Baptist Association, District or General association, in all these years, named perfect without him on the temperance committee. It was sad to see him die without seeing the fruition of his hope in the passage of the county unit law, but his spirit is incarnate in the person of the husband of his only daughter, who in the office of Lieutenant Governor, will seek to perfect the work of his noble father-in-law. Many of his friends and former students will delight in voting for Judge Bristow in order to erect this monument to the memory of Professor Rucker in the passage of this law for which he labored and sacrificed so much.

LANGLEY WILL BE IN FULL CHARGE

Will Have Staff of Assistants at Party Headquarters, But will Dispense with Campaign Committee.

Believing that the smaller the size of the campaign organization the better it will be for the party organization, John W. Langley will conduct the fight on behalf of Judge E. C. O'Rear and the other Republican State nominees without any formally appointed campaign committee.

When Mr. Langley was chosen by the candidates three weeks ago following the State convention, as the chairman of the campaign committee, he was authorized to select the other working members of the committee. After due deliberation on his part and conference with the candidates, it has been decided that he shall personally look after all details of the work incident to the campaign.

With this idea in view, Representative Langley has chosen as his assistants at campaign headquarters, C. M. Barnett, of Hartford; Fred A. Vaughn, of Paintsville; Thurman B. Dixon, of Scottsville, and C. H. Duty, of Winchester. The usual committee heretofore regarded as so essential to a State campaign, will therefore be dispensed with and Mr. Langley will personally look after the financial affairs of the campaign besides engaging and placing the speakers and attending to other work.

Acting on the resolution adopted by the candidates at the meeting the day after the State convention, Chairman Langley will be assisted by an advisory committee, composed of one member from each of the eleven Congressional districts of the State. The selection of this committee was left to the various district committees, but up to the present time only a few members have been selected by the district committees, and then only at the suggestion of Chairman Langley, it is said. This committee, when selected, will act in an advisory capacity merely and then only when called on by the chairman.

Election Forecasts.

Politicians around Frankfort have nothing to do between Legislatures except to figure on the probable results of the election and this "bug" afflicts them regardless of party. They are not busy either figuring McCreary or O'Rear into the governorship. Here is the "dope" handed out by the Democratic experts:

Districts.	McCreary's	O'Rear's
First	9,000
Second	4,000
Third	500
Fourth	3,500
Fifth	5,000
Sixth	6,500
Seventh	5,000
Eighth	1,500
Ninth	500
Tenth	1,500
Eleventh	19,000
Totals	36,000	19,000

Net majority for McCreary: 17,500.
The Republican "dopesters" not to be outdone go the Democrats a little better on the majority they figure for O'Rear. This is the way they forecast the result.

Districts.	McCreary's	O'Rear's
First	5,000
Second	2,500
Third	1,000
Fourth	1,500
Fifth	6,000
Sixth	3,500
Seventh	3,000
Eighth	1,000
Ninth	1,000
Tenth	2,500
Eleventh	24,000
Totals	16,500	34,500

Net majority for O'Rear: 18,000.

Taft's NOTABLE TRIP TO BEGIN SEP. 16

President Likely Will Open Presidential Campaign While En Route.

Washington, August 5.—The most important trip that President Taft has planned since he has been in the White House, in the view of the Republican leaders, a trip during which he is expected to open the 1912 presidential campaign for his party, will begin September 16.

It will last at least four weeks and should it later be decided to extend the outing to the Pacific coast it will be stretched into six weeks, so that the President will not get back to Beverly or Washington until November.

According to the plan so far drawn up at the White House, the President will visit most of the States in the Middle West, north of and including Missouri, and will make excursions into practically all of the States which have progressive congressional delegations.

The President so far has given almost no consideration to speech-making on this trip, but it has long been the idea of Republican leaders that he would make as many political addresses as possible west of the Mississippi.

Jealously Ends in Stage Fight.

London, Aug. 6.—During the "dance bacchanals" with Michael Mordkin at the Palace theater tonight Mme. Pavlova lost her balance and fell; whereupon she arose, slapped Mordkin and left the stage.

"Four months I have suffered in silence, though I am tempted to speak out after this incident," said Mme. Pavlova.

"The truth ought to be known. It was impossible for Pavlova to lose her balance, as I held her by the wrists. She slipped to the floor after trying to trip me," said Mordkin.

"For ten years I have been dancing but I have never before had anything like the difficulty of the present engagement. It has spoiled my work."

The Soul Has Weight.

Duncan MacDougall, of Harverhill, who has long been a student of psychical phenomena, declares in his belief that the human soul weighs from one-half an ounce to nearly an ounce and a quarter, and, further, that the soul substance is blended with the protoplasm of the brain and spinal chord in life.

Dr. MacDougall says it has been his experience in a dozen instances to watch the dying man or woman stretched on a bed that was part of a delicacy adjusted scale, and to hear as the patient's last breath leaves the body the noise of the dropping weight.

Again, sitting in a darkened room, he has watched a strong ray of pure white light rest along the body of a dying man, recovering him over like a silver bar from feet to head and over the face.

Dr. MacDougall and his assistants have made the closest observation of the bar of light to see if that intangible "soul substance" passed in definite shape in cloud or in wavering flits from the out worn body.

"The soul," says Dr. MacDougall, "has a definite weight, ranging from about three-quarters of an ounce to a little more than an ounce, and in relation to light it is identical with the ether of interstellar space."

"These two things I have proven to my own satisfaction."

"For this very reason of the identity of the soul substance and ether I have doubts as to the success of the X-ray photographs that Dr. Arthur W. Goodspeed of the University of Pennsylvania is to try to take of the soul of living subjects."

"From my observations of the soul as subjected to light, both white light and the spectrum, I have come to the positive conclusion of the negative quality of the soul—namely, that its index of refraction to light is zero. All substances except the ether of space give some refraction of light, so I think that in this respect the soul substance and ether are identical."

"The investigation to be concluded by Dr. Goodspeed and his Roentgen ray expert, Mr. Snook, will be of great interest and may unexpectedly make clear some attribute of the soul.

"Until such evidence is forthcoming, however, I shall retain my belief, based on careful experiments, that the soul is too closely intermingled and blended with the protoplasm of brain and spinal column to present itself to photography either by the Roentgen ray or otherwise as a true form."

The body of Prof. John C. Barnard, who died in the Philippines several weeks ago, is expected to arrive in San Francisco, Cal., tomorrow, and will be shipped from that city immediately to Beaver Dam. It is thought that it will take about five days for the remains to arrive and the funeral and interment will probably take place at Liberty Church next Thursday, Aug. 17.

Quite a number from this city are expected to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio County Baptist Association that convenes at Dan Station August 16. The following messengers have been selected by the Hartford Baptist church: Rev. J. W. Bruner, Dr. E. W. Ford, W. M. Fair, R. B. Martin, Luther King, Rev. T. H. Balmann and D. Ford.

EXPERIMENTAL STAGE PASSED

Success of Big Industrial Now Assured.

Hartford People Interested in Enterprise of The Republican and Contribute Liberally

That the people in Hartford are sincere in their belief that it is a good town with a bright future, and are individually and collectively, willing and anxious to do all in their power to advance our interests, is proven by the success we are meeting with in the preparation of our BIG INDUSTRIAL EDITION.

Of the many people so far interviewed by our representative EVERY ONE with the exception of two, has responded, liberally, thus making it possible for us to say positively that the experimental stage is passed and success is now assured. The soliciting is NOT nearly over, as the county is yet to be visited, and if those yet to be seen manifest as great an interest in the enterprise as those already seen, we will publish one of the best editions ever seen in Kentucky. An edition which will not only draw new industries here, but will redound to the credit of every resident of Hartford and Ohio county.

We are convinced that no one will wish this big edition of THOUSANDS OF COPIES to be sent broadcast throughout the county, State and country, without they themselves being represented in it. And right here let us suggest to those who intend having a cut made to be used in this BIG INDUSTRIAL EDITION, that they have the photographs taken at once, for delays are always dangerous.

Names Wanted at Once.

It will be only a short time until our Big Industrial Edition will be issued, and we are desirous of giving this edition as big circulation as possible, and ask everyone to give us names of relatives or friends that formerly lived in Ohio county, so we may send them a copy of The Republican's Big Industrial Edition. We want just as many names as possible and ask your assistance. When you think of some one you would like to have receive a copy of the paper and they formerly lived in Ohio county, let us have the name, and just as many as you can think of.

Resolution of Respect.

Beaver Dam Lodge No. 332, I. O. O. F., Beaver Dam, Ky.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our earthly ties and labors on July 25, 1911, Mrs. Lena French, wife of our brother in fraternity, Forest French.

Resolved, That in her death the strongest ties that bind our brother to this old earth has been severed; the father and mother bereft of a loving and dutiful daughter; the brothers and sisters of a sister affectionate and kind; the church a member earnest and faithful.

Resolved, That we extend to our brother the heartfelt sympathy of our lodge and commend him to the gracious and merciful being whose great heart feels for the woes of His children and even notes the fall of a sparrow.

Resolved, That to the father, mother, brothers and sisters and all that knew her modest and virtuous life we would say, weep not, neither mourn for her for her soul life is hid with God, who calls you to that better land.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to our bereaved brother; a copy be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, and a copy sent to each of our county papers for publication.

MOUNTAIN SUNDAY SCHOOLS GROWING

Secretary Joplin Delighted With Conventions Held in Eastern Kentucky.

Following a trip of a little more than two weeks through Eastern Kentucky, where he has been conducting county Sunday school conventions, Secretary George A. Joplin, of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, has just returned to Louisville delighted with the attendance at these conventions and marvelling at the extraordinary signs of material progress he saw along the Big Sandy in the mountain region.

He conducted conventions at Williamstown, near Mayesville; at Vanceburg, near Greenup; at Cliffsburg, between Ashland and Catfishburg; at Prestonburg, Pikeville and Elkhorn. His attendance every place averaged 600 and 1,000 people, and at one place an enthusiastic worker declared that there were three times as many people at an open-air meeting.

"It is marvelous the way towns are developing along the Big Sandy," said Dr. Joplin. "The organization of the Consolidated Coal Company and the operations planned by that company are resulting in a big boom. Towns are springing up as by magic. At Pikeville I saw numerous houses going up and Auxier, Van Lear and Jenkins have sprung up almost in a night. At Jenkins the people are wild with enthusiasm and are talking that the coal company will expend millions of dollars there. This town has a street four or five miles in length."

During the next two or three weeks, W. J. Vaughan, field worker in the Eastern district, will be conducting conventions. His dates are as follows: Wolfe county convention at Zelgrove, August 4 and 5; Breathitt, at Jackson, August 7 and 8; Clay City at Powell, August 9; Louisa, at Lawrence, August 12 and 13; Paris, at Bourbon, August 15; Pendergast, near Falmouth, August 16; Owen, at Owensville, August 19 and 20.

T. C. Gahner, field worker in the western district, is now taking his vacation with his wife at Niagara Falls. During the next two weeks, with the exception of an engagement at the Henry county convention at New Castle on August 10, Dr. Joplin will remain in Louisville, where Miss Francis Grigsby, office secretary, is taking her vacation at Winona Lake. Miss Grigsby has just been honored by the Sunday School Times, published at Philadelphia, by being elected for a second year to prepare its exposition of international series of international graded lessons. Miss Grigsby did this work last year to successfully try her exposition will be bound and published in book form for circulation in every country where the international lessons are read and studied. During the absence of the pastor, Secretary Joplin will act as supply at the Highland Presbyterian church during the next two weeks.

Bee as a Messenger in War.

An ant has no sense of direction. Removed a few yards from its hill it wanders about aimlessly with no idea of the way home. The sense of orientation is much better in the carrier pigeon, but it is simply perfect in the bee. This last returns infallibly to its hive, making the proverbial "bee line." For this reason it is now proposed to employ the bee as a messenger in war. Straight through the lines of the enemy it may be sent with safety and mathematical precision. A message as long as the Ten Commandments may be microscopically recorded in a space not larger than a pin's head and subsequently developed photographically. Such a tiny message may be glued to the body of a bee.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A Bad Month.

Prof. Augustus Meyer, the eminent Holbrook astrologer, tested a bulletin from the "seamy messengers" yesterday, in which he prophesies a great many terrible calamities.

Here are the predictions for the immediate future.

As an American astrologer, I therefore wish to state that the hottest weather in history, or on record, will occur from the 13th to the 31st instant. However the most intense heat of all will be in evidence on the 13th, 15th, 19th, 20th, 22, 25th, 26th, 30th and 31st instants. On these dates great thunderstorms, also tornadoes, or cyclones, if not earthquakes, and some of the most peculiar atmospheric disturbances ever witnessed, will be much in evidence, as well as calamities of magnitude on land and sea and below, on and above the earth, and the mortality will be unusually large, especially among aged people and among animals, and business be at a standstill, and great failure will occur in the commercial world and in Wall street, and the markets will be very erratic, but quite bullish.

"Great fires will occur in England, especially in London, and also in the United States, especially in New York and New Jersey."

Life Saved at Death's Door.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me.

Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years. Quick safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, grippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists. m

Will Die in Electric Chair.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 7.—Friends of Oliver Locks, condemned to death for the murder of his wife, have practically abandoned hope for him. Gov. Willson has set August 22, as the day for the execution. Unless the Governor can be induced to change his mind, there is no hope for the prisoner.

Locks will be the third man to die in the electric chair in this State. Shay Penman, convicted in Lincoln county, was electrocuted August 5.

The electric chair has succeeded the gallows in all legal executions in this State. The last man killed by the State under the old method was a negro and the first man electrocuted was a negro. Executions are done in the State penitentiary.

Another Free Trade Four Years.

With the exact analysis and the cold logic of a mind long trained in the measurement of political cause and effect, Henry Watterson, in the Louisville Courier-Journal, forecasts as follows the outcome of President Taft efforts to divorce from the Republican party will go with it—precisely as which distinguishes and differentiates it as a party:

The High Protective Tariff is assuredly on its last legs. It is bound to go. In our opinion the Republican party will go with it—precisely as when Slavery went by the board Democracy followed after. There was no separating Democracy and Slavery. There is no separating Republicanism and Protectionism.

Mr. Watterson is right. When Protectionism goes, the Republican party goes. But not for long. Protectionism will go, but return, it is always has returned whenever banished. Four years of Free-Trade domination, commencing, as now seems probable, with March 4, 1913, will just as surely be followed by a long period of protectionism as was the Free-Trade four years which began March 4, 1893. But the pity of it is that through the famous blundering of a President elected as a Republican the country should be compelled to again pass through the annual horrors of another Free-Trade four years.

C. R. CARSON WRITES US FROM ARKANSAS

He Believes in Ohio County and Look Forward to the Big Industrial Edition.

Stuttgart, Ark., Aug. 7, 1911.

Editor Republican:
Dear Sir:—I have been looking forward with great interest, for quite awhile, the forthcoming of the Industrial Edition, which as a "booster" for Ohio county will undoubtedly meet with great success.

Having been reared in Ohio county, I feel an interest in seeing her rise to the front, and trust that the near future will reward each and every individual within her boundary who has helped to promote the good work. There is no reason that through the united efforts of her citizens she should rank with the foremost counties in Western Kentucky, for she has so many advantages a great many of her sister counties cannot boast of. To give you what folks are doing in the way of "boosting" their town and county, am mailing you under separate cover a copy of "The Free Press" published at Stuttgart, and will say, it does not exaggerate in any manner in regard to the different industries etc., engaged in, for I know from my own observation, and really believe it to be the leading town of its size in the State, as well as Arkansas county being one of the foremost in agriculture.

A High Sign of Prosperity.

What the farmers get out of protection has been made plain in many ways during almost a decade and a half of uninterrupted protection of American industry by a protective tariff. The Dingley tariff law, which repealed and displaced the Democratic tariff law of the middle 90's, became operative in 1897. Under the Democratic tariff law, the American farmer, although favored by rain and sun, and growing bounteous crops, was in the slough of despond. Demand had fallen away, owing to non-employment of labor, and prices had followed. A chance for the better was noted soon after the Dingley law became effective. The improvement increased during the years of its operation. The increase in the farmer's prosperity was felt in every line of business, but then, as in previous years and under earlier tariffs, there was a constant cry that the farmer was the victim and not the beneficiary of tariffs levied and maintained for the promotion of manufacturing.

It is, of course, impossible for anybody to explain how farming lands can increase greatly in value without a steady and remunerative demand for their products, growing out of a home market in which labor is steadily employed at fair wages. That is one of the things "no fellow can find out." The demand for the lands which increases their value is a result of economic conditions making their products salable at all times and at good figures. To gauge the farmer's prosperity under protection, we have now the official figures of the Census Bureau, showing the increase during the census period between 1900 and 1910. They ought to be an unanswerable argument to such as have been contending that the farmer has no legitimate interest in maintaining conditions as they are, and in standing pat for letting well enough alone. For they show that farm lands more than doubled in value during the decade covered by hectorism. In 1900 such lands were valued at $13,051,033,000. In 1910 they were valued at $28,384,821,000. The increase in value was 118 per cent. Farm buildings, always and everywhere good indications of the state of prosperity on the farm, nearly doubled in value, the increase being from $3,550,614,000 in 1900. The increase in farm imple-

Will You Try a Plat of Alfalfa at Our Expense?

Would you try a plat of alfalfa, if we were to furnish the seed without any cost to you? A large number of farmers in this county would raise alfalfa, if they knew that it could be grown profitably on their soil. Every farmer, who is a reader of this paper, may try a small plat of alfalfa, at our expense.

We have made arrangements with the Farmer and Stockman, of St. Louis, whereby we can offer any of our readers enough alfalfa seed to sow 1-10 of an acre. If this seed grows and your soil is found to yield alfalfa profitably, next year you can grow it as extensively as you desire. You can either buy seed and sow a large plat, or you can save enough seed, from the test plat to increase the acreage.

How to Get the Seed.

Send us $1.75 for our paper one year, the Farmer and Stockman one year, and the People's Popular Monthly one year and we will send you enough alfalfa seed to sow 1-10 of an acre, absolutely free of charge. When you remember that alfalfa seed usually retails for more than $20.00 per bushel, you can see how liberal this offer is. We guarantee this seed to be the very best on the market and entirely free from weed and dodder seed.

When you sow it you are sure of having a quality of seed, which will enable you to make a thorough test of your soil. From time to time we will publish articles in our paper on how to prepare the ground and sow the seed to insure a perfect stand of alfalfa. Alfalfa seed should be sown in Kentucky any time between August 1st and September 25th. You should therefore place your order with us at once.

The seed will be mailed direct to you from the the Farmer and Stockman in St. Louis which will insure prompt delivery.

Our paper needs no introduction to the farmers in this county. The Farmer and Stockman is the leading farm and stock paper in the nation. The People's Popular Monthly is one of the best home monthlies in the country.

Send us in your subscription at once, you will never have another opportunity like this to get absolutely pure alfalfa seed, free of charge.

Use the coupon below and mail remittance today. Address all orders to THE REPUBLICAN, Hartford, Kentucky.

That this great increase in farm values was not a result of the pouring of new lands as shown in the figures setting out the comparative number of farms in the county last year and ten years earlier. In 1900 the number of farms was 5,737,572. In 1910 the number had increased to 6,340,120, an increase of but little more than 10 per cent. he highest and surest test is found in the increase values of farm lands. In 1900 the average value of an acre of farm land in this country was $15.00. In 1910 this had increased to $32.50, an increase of 108 per cent. Last year the men in enjoyment of this remarkable prosperity seemed to be imprudently with an idea that it was in no way due to the economic legislation the continuance of which was then threatened. They showed a surprising indifference to the assaults made upon the tariff, and thousands of them voted to place its revision again in the hands of the party which made the tariff law of the early 90's. They had forgotten how well off they had grown without downward revision. Perhaps these census statistics will refresh their memories.

Blind Dizzy Spells.

Wilmington, N. C.—Mrs. Cora L. Ritter, writes from this place: "I used to have blind dizzy spells, and weak cold spells went all over me. Different doctors could not tell me what was wrong. After taking Cardui I am all right and in better health than for 10 years." Cardui is a remedy for women which has been used by women for nearly a lifetime. It prevents the unnecessary pains of female troubles, such as headache, backache, dizziness, dragging down feelings, etc. Try it. E-23.

PELLAGRA BREAKS OUT AT ASYLUM

Several Other Patients are Ill
With Symptoms of Disease.

Lexington, Ky., August 7.—Cases of pellagra, for which the State Board of Control will probably make arrangements for isolation at its meeting here August 9 and 10, have been found among the inmates of the Eastern Kentucky Asylum here. There are now seven or more well defined cases of the disease in the hospital and several others are ill and are suspected of being pellagra, but which have not yet developed sufficiently for accurate diagnosis.

Practically all of these cases have developed. Dr. J. C. Willis, superintendent of the Asylum, said Wednesday, within the last year, but which the cause of the disease it has not been determined, as even the highest scientific authorities are still somewhat puzzled as to the cause of the disease. By most authorities, however, it is thought to be due to the eating of corn products in which there are some bacteria or injurious principle. Apparently in support of this is the fact that most of the cases of pellagra that have developed in the asylum have originated in the wards where large quantities of corn syrup are used while in other wards where much smaller quantities of the syrup are used there have been only a few cases of pellagra. Following this clue Dr. Willis has inaugurated a system of investigation by eliminating various foods and noting the result. The first food cut off was corn, corn meal, corn syrup and all products or forms of corn.

Although the disease is not ordinarily supposed to be contagious, the attendants at the asylum feel somewhat uneasy about having to be with patients who are afflicted with it at the meeting of the board of Control here August 9 and 10, it is likely that some provisions will be made for isolating the patients affected with pellagra. There is not room at the asylum for an isolated ward now, as there are more than a thousand patients in the institution, and a square ate building will probably be erected for the pellagra patients. There are twelve women and five men at the institution affected with the malady, according to the statement of Dr. R. L. Willis, the asylum superintendent.

What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm masters catarrh, promptly. But you know the old saying about the ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

A Strange Story.

Argyle, Mich.—Mrs. Wm. H. Carson in a letter from Argyle, says: "I was almost wild with pain in my head, and other severe pains from womanly troubles. After using Cardui, I obtained great relief. Further use of Cardui relieved me from my bed of agony. Cardui saved my life when nothing else would help me." Whether seriously sick, or simply ailing, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It relieves pain, regulates irregularities, builds weak, nervous women back to health. Ask your druggist about it. E-24

BALD KNOB.

Aug.—Health in this neighborhood is very good, and prospects for a good corn crop much better.

There will be singing at this place next Saturday night and preaching Sunday by the pastor, Rev. R. Harper.

Miss Bessie Torrence who has been staying at Mr. Anderson's, of Hartford returned home Saturday to spend a few months.

Miss Roxie Igleheart, of Louisville, visited her aunt, Mrs. S. M. Taylor, of this place last week.

Mr. A. A. Sandefur, of St. Louis, Mo., spent a few days with relatives at this place week before last.

Messrs. Roscoe Embury, Norville Leach, Alexander Davis and Bill Davis spent last Sunday with Mr. Marion Sandefur.

Sabbath School is progressing nicely at Mt. Pleasant.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

THE HEREAFTER IN A NUTSHELL.

By Pastor Russell.

PROFITING BY PAST ERRORS.

Whilst Catholics are returning to the Bible and the present Pope has directed that their people be encouraged in Bible study, Protestants are drifting into infidelity under the modern designations Higher Criticism and Evolution, said the pastor. Our fathers during the dark ages got away from the Bible by supposing an "apostolic suggestion." Gradually the Creeds got the Bible's place under the supposition that they agreed. Now having outgrown these Creeds in rejecting them many many are rejecting the Bible also. This is a mistake! The Bible is the most wonderful book in the world when allowed to interpret itself. It furnishes the only allying ground for human brotherhood and Christian brotherhood. The world otherwise is facing anarchy. A lost religion will soon mean a lost God, and a lost future hope, and a selfish strife for the present life only.

MAN'S FALL FROM PERFECTION.

Let us not mourn our errors of the past unduly, but at once, now, get right with God and his Book! Its presentation is logical from Genesis to Revelations. It tells of the perfection of our first parents, of the test of their loyalty, of their failure and its penalty death—not eternal torture. It tells that all of present imperfection, mental and moral and physical are incidental to the death penalty. 20,000,000,000 have been born dying and soon topped over into the tomb. GOD'S MERCY MAN'S ONLY HOPE.

God's mercy cannot allow sinners to live in happiness in injury to themselves and others and to mar creation nor could it permit sinners to live in torture to blaspheme the Holy Name. But one thing could be done under the plan arranged. Man could be redeemed by a Savior dying "the just for the unjust" to square the demand of justice against the race through one man's disobedience. God purposed this remedy for all the race "before the foundation of the world." "In due time Christ died for the ungodly"—"He tasted death (not for torment) for every man."

SETTING FREE THE PRISONERS

The Bible alone teaches that men die when they seem to die; yet it calls this a "sleep" because there is to be a resurrection of the dead, both just and unjust." The Prophet's and Apostles all "fell asleep" as well as all others of Adam's race. They are sleeping in a great prison-house unconscious until the prison tomb shall be opened and they shall be called forth. This was shown by many Scriptures.

THE DELIVERER—THE RANSOMER

It was not sufficient that Jesus came and died for man's sin. That satisfaction of Justice is preliminary to their recovery from the prison and from the hereditary weaknesses which led them to the prison house, the tomb. Hence the Redeemer is also to be the restorer and Lifegiver. The time for that deliverance or "redemption" is still future, but near. It will begin at Jesus' second advent says St. Peter.—Acts 3:19-23.

MESSIAH'S KINGDOM THEORY EXPLODED.

So say some good people; but they err. It was Jesus himself that told of his future reign of a thousand years when his Bride-Church the "elect" will be associated with him in his kingdom and work; and when Satan shall be bound.—Revelations 20:1-6.

The loss of this hope by our forefathers led on to all the grievous errors from which we are now seeking to escape. Do we not still pray "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth over as it is done in heaven?" The coming Messiah's Kingdom is the key to the world's blessing by restitution—back to human perfection in a world-wide Eden.

"HIGH CALLING" OF THE "BRIDE."

While waiting for his "due time" to come for the blessing of mankind God is not idle. He made one election during the Jewish age from amongst that people of a saintly few, for his future work. And during this Christian age God has been making another election—the Church "the Bride the Lamb's Wife."

The elections do not spell torture to the non-elect masses of mankind but the reverse, blessing. Through these "elect" saints God's favors and mercies will be poured upon Adam's race for a thousand years—for their full uplift to all that was lost in Eden and redeemed at Calvary.

This does not mean that there is to be no punishment for sin. Quite to the contrary—every wrong word, word of thought has its damning influence and will bring its "stripes." It does mean that there are now in torture. All are "asleep" in sleep, bodies, the tomb, and all will be blessed and ransomed by their redeemer. Therefore every good endeavor now, will bring proportionate uplift of character and fall on the future favorably, even in those not of the saintly elect class.

Wife got Tip Top Advice.

"My wife wanted me to take our boy to the doctor to cure an angry boil in a short time." Quickest Ointment. "I said 'put Bucklen's Arnica Salve on it.' She did so, and it cured the boil in a short time." Quickest healer of burns, Scalds, Chaps, Corns, Bruises, Sprains, Swellings, Best Plaster on earth. Try it. Only 25c at all druggists.

Liquid Dynamite.

The Mexicans have a native brandy called aguardiente, which is a species of liquid dynamite, as palatable as corrosive sublimate and as full of potential deviltry as an egg is of meat. When you find a Mexican gentleman adorned with a belt full of deadly weapons decorating and denigrating his interior with aguardiente it is the part of prudence to retire to a bombproof. There is another tipple, a white, innocent-looking fluid, called mecal, which is distilled from a cactus of the same name, which has in it all the combined energy, activity and homicidal possibilities of a volcano mixed up with the gable end of an Arizona mule. In former days the Apache Indians made a crude distillation of the same stimulant, which they call tis-win, and as a preliminary to a raid among the ranches and settlements of the desolated territory of Arizona it was a great success from an Indian point of view, through it might not have met the approval of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.—Boston Herald.

A Lifetime Trouble.

Ingram, Texas—"Ever since I became a woman," writes Mrs. E. M. Evans, of this place. "I suffered from womanly trouble. Last fall, it got so bad, I had to stay in bed for nearly a week every month. Since taking Cardui, I feel better than I have for years." You can rely on Cardui. Prepared especially for women, it relieves womanly pain, by acting on the cause and builds up womanly strength where it is most needed. Purely vegetable. Mild, but certain in action. Try it. At your druggist. E-21

WALTONS CREEK

Aug. 1.—Mr. John Hocker and daughters, Misses Sadie and Meek and son Barney, of near Mellenry, were the guests of Mr. Sedot Hocker Sunday.

Miss Willie Bennett who has been sick for quite a while, is slowly improving. We hope Miss Willie will soon be well again.

Mrs. S. H. Bender who has had typhoid fever is, we are glad to say much better. She has little if any fever now.

Mrs. J. W. Carter and children, of Centertown, who have been visiting relatives in this community, left Monday for a few days visit to relatives near Matanzas.

Mr. Alvin Ross and family visited Mr. Mack Ross of Centertown Sunday. Mr. H. R. Bennett will soon be ready to move into his new house which is doubtless one of the very nicest farm houses in the county.

Quite a number of young people from the Matanzas Sunday school visited our Sunday school Sunday. We hope they will come again.

Little Miss Margaret Benton is visiting her uncle, Mr. Carl Benton, of Cloverport.

Terrible Train of Troubles.

Lake Charles, La.—Mrs. E. Four-der, 516 Kirby street says: "The month before I took Cardui I could hardly walk. I had backache, headache, pain in my legs, chills, fainting spells, sick stomach dragging feelings and no patience or courage. Since taking Cardui, I have no more pain, and feel good all the time." Take Cardui and get the benefit of the peculiar herb ingredients, which have been found so efficient for womanly ills. Other people have done the testing. You profit by their experience. Try it. E-22.

One for the Loafer.

Now, don't the Shelby Record know just how to tell the truth—a good, round, wholesome one, at that when it says the following? Read it:

"If there is one thing above another a young man should be ashamed of doing, it is loitering without aim or purpose or profit, on the streets or in stores day after day, all week. If you have nothing to do, stay at home—a part of the time, at any rate. No young man with any self-respect will content himself with aspiring to no higher reputation than that of a chronic loafer and store box magnet. Nothing will so blunt the higher faculties of the mind as idleness; and no idleness is so baneful and malevolent in its effect as that voluntary idleness termed loafing."

For Senator,
O. HOLMAN,
of Morgantown.

We forgot to mention in our article last week on the question of Judge O'Rear's resignation as a member of the Court of Appeals, that Senator Paynter was also a member of the Court of Appeals while he was a candidate for United States Senator, and did not resign, but held the position until his salary as United States Senator was ripe.

The cartoon in The Evening Post one day last week, representing Maria Henry sulking in his tent, was one of the first which that paper has ever published. It was accompanied by a political poem by Charles Hamilton Musgrove, entitled "Limping in the Rear O'Rear" which was a peach and we believe will have the effect to stop the attempts of the great editor to perpetrate political poetry on his readers in the future.

The Republicans of Ohio County are exceptionally fortunate in having Judge O'Rear speak here on September 4th. His services are so sought after all over the State that many Counties will be compelled to forego the presence during the campaign. He opens with an address at Elizabethtown next Monday, which is also another favor to the Fourth Congressional District, which stood by him so nearly unanimous in his contest for the nomination.

It has become apparent that the Democratic criticisms of Judge O'Rear because of his compliment to Senator Bradley, in his speech of acceptance, are to recede upon the devoted head of the Democratic nominee for Governor. The opening of this question, which will doubtless play a prominent part in the campaign, brings to the minds of the people the part which McCleary played in the defeat of Beckham after he had won the Senatorial nomination in 1907. Mr. Beckham openly charged McCleary with aiding and abetting the bolt which brought about his defeat. Now the party has not only nominated Mr. McCleary but has also placed on the Democratic ticket the Honorable Billy Blair, of Lexington, one of the bolting Democratic members of the House who never cast a single vote for Beckham during the entire session, although Beckham bore a certificate of nomination from a State wide primary election.

Democracy seems to be fairly divided on the county unit question. The Courier-Journal contains almost daily, broadside against it, warning the Democratic party against a plank of that kind in the platform and predicting disaster if the party commits itself to the same plank which the Republicans have adopted. Mr. Watterson has gone so far as to warn the party, in case a plank of this kind is inserted, the Courier-Journal will not lead the boss, but will jump in the rear. In the meantime all sorts of misrepresentations are being published against Judge O'Rear and his position on the county unit question. In one breath Mr. Watterson warns the people against him because he says he is a rank prohibitionist and will bring about State wide prohibition in the future if he is elected Governor, while in the next he charges him with insincerity and with taking a position for mere popularity, and with improper motives. The man in the country who reads these editorials in the Courier-Journal will draw his own conclusions.

CASE OF "LIQUORPHOBIA."

Harry Summers, a stalwart Democrat, a brilliant newspaper man and a prospective candidate for his party for gubernatorial honors four years hence, says in the Elizabethtown News: Everybody thinks Harry Watterson is sincere in his desire to elect the Democratic ticket, but no Republican is doing as much to hurt it as his foolish editorials on the liquor question are doing. He certainly has a bad case of "liquorphobia" and needs a madstone applied at once.

FARM TOPICS.

EDITOR INSTRUCTS FARMER.

It is often said that farming has two sides—the producing and the selling side. Many a man succeeds in producing good crops who fails in marketing them. The importance of price is likely to be overlooked, comments the Youth's Companion. Granted that it costs 40 cents to produce a bushel of onions, and that they can be sold for 50 cents, there is a profit of 10 per cent more profit. One acre of price can be raised to 60 cents, the consumer pays 20 per cent more for his article, the farmer receives 100 per cent more profit. One acre of onions sold at 60 cents a bushel under these conditions is more profitable than two acres sold at 50 cents a bushel, although the farmer receives much less money in the aggregate, because the capital invested and the outlay have been much less on the single acre than on the two. How to get this increased price involves a study of many problems, including those of transportation, methods of selling, the character of market to be sought, or adapting the produce to the one which is available; determining whether to sell in a home market or a distant one, whether by direct sales or commission; the variety to be grown, the methods of packing, grading and so forth.

Closely connected with the problem of marketing is the one of advertising. As the farmer becomes a business man, he will find it necessary to advertise his business, as other men advertise theirs, although not always by the same methods. To conduct a successful business on business principles demands a system of records and accounts, one that includes, besides the business accounts time cards, which show the milk produced by the cow, the eggs laid by each hen or fowls, and so forth. The above enumeration will serve to show that the business problems which confront the farmer are sufficient to warrant his most careful study and attention. Thus far the most important movements which have been put forth to better our agriculture have been chiefly directed toward the increase of production. In the future more attention must be paid to the business problems involved.—Haverhill (Mass.) Gazette.

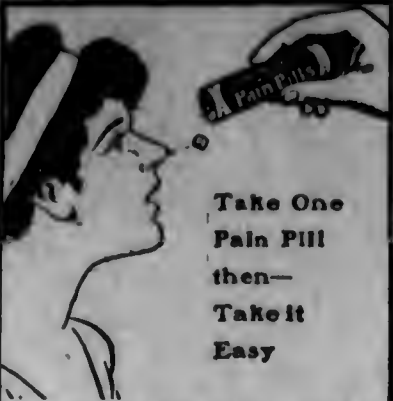

THE MEANEST MAN ON EARTH.

Secretary Wilson of the United States Department of Agriculture says that about the meanest man he ever heard of was the one in a Southern state whose boy asked him for the use of one acre of ground to plant in corn so that he might compete for a prize, and the father told the boy he did not believe in such foolishness. The boy persisted, however, and the father finally pointed to a rough hillside overgrown with brush and spots with stumps and stones, and told him if he would grub that acre and move off the stones he could have it. The boy went to work, and finally cleared it. Then the old man said: "Well, if you will clear another to lose. I think I will plant it myself. The boy cried, and the father finally said: "Well, if you will clear another acre beside that I won't take it from you, and you may plant it and do what you please." Thereupon the boy again went to work and cleared the second acre. He planted it to corn after our directions, and as a result he made eighty-eight bushels. At the same time his father planted and cultivated the acre adjoining, using the old way. He made just eighteen. Since then the old man has been converted to our way of farming. He goes with his boy to the agricultural fairs and tells about the eighty-eight bushels of corn they raised on a acre, saying, "That is what me and my boy done."

In such circumstances can the boy be blamed for not leaving the farm.

THREE KINDS OF FARMERS.

There are three classes of farmers—first, the pioneer, who has very little stock, who hunts a little, fishes a little, farms a little and fights a good deal. He stays for a little while and moves westward in search of fresh adventures. Then comes the speculative farmer, a soil robber, who farms about three times as much land as he ought to, skins off the cream, gets the benefit of the uncertain increment and moves on. Then comes the man we will call the "real farmer," who comes to stay, to build schoolhouses, churches and a home for himself and his family, where he and his children will live for generations. He is the man who is interested in the emanant fertility of the soil. It is for his interest in order that his children may live as well as he is living. This is the man in whose behalf we want to assist in making two blades of grass grow where one blade now grows, in turning the scale of over-diminishing returns into one of ever-increasing returns. It will not break in the mouth of his children and in the mouths of

WAY TO BAISH CATERPILLARS.

It begins to look as if the destructive brown-tail and gypsy moths and the pestiferous caterpillars have been conquered at last. A simple diet of lettuce leaves, it has been found, is the easiest and best way to get rid of them. All that you have to do is if the caterpillars are spoiling your shrub and trees is to catch one or two of them and feed them on some lettuce that has been soaked in water four days. After they have eaten all they care to, turn the caterpillars loose again. They will do the rest.

The explanation is simple. It has been discovered that watered lettuce leaves give caterpillars the cholera. One caterpillar so infected quickly spreads the disease amongst fellows. In Massachusetts the epidemic is spreading among caterpillars, brown-tails and gypsies, much to the delight of the state entomologists, who almost despaired of ever getting rid of the pests.

A caterpillar suffering from caterpillar cholera or wilt disease soon stops eating, according to the explanation offered by Prof. William Roff, of Harvard. It becomes weak and lazy, and usually crawls up on some object, as the trunk of the tree, a fence, a wall or other vertical surface, where it remains without motion. In a few hours there's rots into its mouth a blackish liquid, the caterpillar becomes more and more flaccid, one leg after another loses its support and finally the creature, reduced to a black skin, hangs dead, still holding on with one of the false feet.

WILL BEAT BREAD CASTING.

Missouri railroads are considering a plan which, from the sordid viewpoint of most business (supposed to include railroads), has several points over the biblically recommended act of casting bread on the waters. That thing the railroads will do if the efforts of Missouri's State Board of Agriculture meet success, will be to transport free of charge, to convenient shipping points, fertilizing material for use on Missouri farms. It is estimated that 10,000 cars of waste (mostly manure from the stock yards) can be hauled out of the larger cities each year. This in line with their work the railroads are doing for the common good, and yet they figure that from this particular move may come crop benefits that may soon pay them back in increased freight on farm products.—Missouri Ruralist.

FATTENING HOGS WITH FIELD PEAS.

With hogs the vines may be raked up and threshed for seed. The hogs will pick up every pea from the ground and digest it. Hogs may be run with lands or cattle on pea ground to advantage. They eat and like the straw as well as the grain. Pork from peas is equal to that from corn. Threshed field peas pay about the same as a good crop, with very much less expense.

The mutton from lambs and sheep fattened upon the peas is of a peculiar good quality. The lambs are rich in color, the fat white, the flesh firm and of the best flavor. Fed-fed mutton tops the Chicago market when furnished in good shape.

Our state experimental station issued literature referring to results of stock feeding with field peas that give evidence of no little importance.

We advise all stock growers to plant liberally of field peas.—Desert Farmer.

COMPARATIVE UTILITY.

Fortunes have been spent in demonstrating that the dirigible balloon is not half as useful to mankind as, for instance, the homely, unpretending, eight long drag has shown itself to be.—Chicago Tribune.

EPIGRAMS.

It is almost as irritating to be patronized as to be wronged.

A man to be a good citizen must first be a good breadwinner, a good husband and a good father.

If a man will submit to being carried, that is sufficient to show that he is not worth carrying.

In the long run the only kind of help that really avails is the help which teaches a man to help himself.

Hardness of heart is a dreadful quality, but it is doubtful whether in the long run it works more damage than softness of head.—Theodore Roosevelt.

FLEETS A MENACE.

There is not a ruler or statesman in the world today who desires war, but while every nation builds its fleets every one of these fleets becomes a menace to other nations because they can easily be converted into instruments of destruction.—Andrew Carnegie.

WORK.

If a man would eat he must work. A life of elegant leisure is the life of an unworthy citizen. The republic does not owe him a living. It is he who owes the republic a life of usefulness. Such is the republican idea.—Andrew Carnegie.

The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties; help us to play the man; help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces; let cheerfulness abound with industry.—R. L. Stevenson.

A man must train himself for his opportunities, for a great occasion is worth to a man exactly what his antecedents have enabled him to make of it.—Matthews.

POWER POLLUTES.

Power, like a desolating pestilence, pollutes whomever it touches, and obediency, Bane of all genius, virtue, freedom, truth. Makes slaves of men and of the human frame. A mechanized automaton. —Shelley.

Falls Victim to Thieves.

S. W. Bonds, of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. Then were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. He's well now. Undervalued for constipation, malaria, headache, dyspepsia. 25c at all druggists.
